

Project Breif

About the project

It is an E-commerce Website that contains many products, the user can buy products and search for categories that the website contains and buy them through the payment method available on the website, and the Admin can add products, determine their type, delete them and accept the purchase process that is done by the user.

The aim of the project :

- Displaying products in a clear way for the user to be able to purchase products by having product details and pictures in addition to the price.
- Facilitating the process of purchasing products for customers through the site and browsing.

Technologies and languages :

- PHP framework laravel 5.7
- HTML 5
- CSS3
- Bootstrap Library
- MySQL

